DEDICATION

To Barry Schuyler,
(Arent H.)

Who teaches the cold facts of science with warmth and a sense of humor;
Who instills in his students curiosity and the desire for truth;
Who shares freely with his students the great store of his knowledge, but never tells them something they should find out for themselves;
Who is interested in students, not only from a teacher's point of view, but also as an understanding friend,

we, the class of 1967, dedicate this La Honda.

FROM THE HEADMASTER'S DESK

As members of the Class of 1967 of Laguna Blanca School you have shared many experiences that have given you a united sense of purpose while each of you has been developing important individual characteristics. As you now all take different directions, it is interesting to contemplate how your experiences at Laguna and the characteristics you have developed here will affect your future.

Each year the world seems to demand more of its younger generation. This is true now more than ever before, particularly with the rapid expansion of knowledge and the growth of social responsibility in a world of rapid change. While more is expected of college undergraduates, fewer and fewer external controls and guidelines are present. You will find that sound judgment and effective self-discipline are essential ingredients for a successful life.

The shape and character of Laguna have been enhanced by the energy, dedication, and imagination of the Class of 1967. The high quality of work that you have produced, the contributions in directing the life of the school, and the inspiration you have left for even more ambitious future goals make a rich heritage for the classes that will follow. Pursue your objectives with courage and determination, but don't lose the idealism that made your past accomplishments possible.

INTRODUCTION

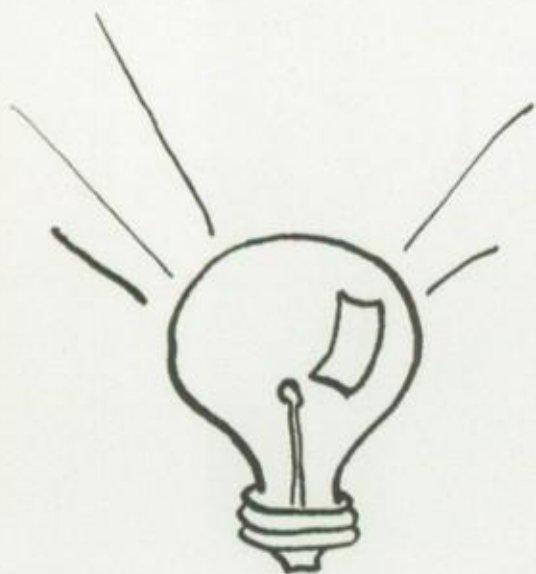

"And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness."

It is the middle of the night and all is dark. We can see nothing. The night grows old; black turns to gray. We can see indistinct shapes of bushes and trees.

It grows light and gray turns to blue. Shapes become clearer, shadows sharper. As dawn approaches, colors emerge from the misty blueness.

Our surroundings gain depth and intricate detail. Soft pink light, harbinger of day, glides silently down the flat mountains giving them shape. Suddenly like a red balloon the sun rises over the horizon, and the world is drawn in light.

As we grow and learn in the world our minds emerge from darkness into light. Our perception sharpens. We can see farther and more clearly. Growing up is like watching night turn into day. Therefore, we have chosen light as the theme of this year's La Honda.

SENIOR

I, Bonnie Ashton, being of temporary mind, quickly bequeath my small voice to Olga Smallpage and Cathy Campbell, my camera to Fred Brander so that he will be on the right side of it, my matchless talent for procrastination to Holly Haugh, my shyness to Bob Hoag, a foot or so of hair to Eric Neel, my Physics average to Robbie Bertrando, and my grace, poise, and beauty to Nikkie Tal.

I, Doug Colfax, do hereby will Lab Experiment # 1 to Rand Wilson with the hope that he can put it to better use than I, my locker to Leslie, the rest of the family to Mr. Adams, and Davey Brown's guard station to Tom Danenhower and Smokey the Bear.

I, Roy Dietrich, being of sound mind and body, do will my "cheery hello" to Mark Woerner, my little brother to his millions of fans, my All American Quality Slide Rule to anyone who can lift it, and my iron stomach to Pam Holm.

I, Deborah Mary Hilda Dunn, a normal girl from a boys' school, leave my research papers on the San Marcos Pass and an unabridged edition of my excuse notes to Mr. Adams, my favorite horse book and my pin-up of the Black Stallion to the Gaisers, my adeptness at being late to Kendal Cramer, and a bunch of bananas to Brandy Luton.

We, Claud and Gus, being now inseparable, leave behind us: to Barry and Erik, a safer parking lot; to Cathy Adcock, our rumble seat; to Hoag, our far superior "ah-oogah" horn; to Colonel, the "bagnolle" that goes uphill backwards; to Brad B., a box of wooden matches; to Roy, our gearshift and strange hiding places; and to Pakie Ann, her brother.

I, Deb the Ken, being the original knee slapper, leave my shoelaces to Carl and Robbie, "Yellow Sub" to Clare's horse so he can eat the rest of it, my "Yogi Bear" thermos to Dave Bazemore, my stewardess's flight insurance worth $25,000 to Mr. Tierney, my task of keeping rebounds to Brandy, the Great Pumpkin to J. L., and Bill to my insane parents.

I, Margaret H. Kolyn, being typically out of it, bequeath the last third of my English mid-year to Mr. Cramer, the L. B. S. Constitution to Paco, my driver's license to the Department of Motor Vehicles, my hysterics to John Lindsey so he will SMILE, and finally C. J. R. to Carl.

I, Dawn Lyric Lucian, following the standards set by my sister three years past, bequeath nothing to no one owing to my miserly nature and my intention to live forever. My only hope is that someone exists in this school who can vex Mr. Tierney as successfully as I.

I, Barbara Dickinson Luton, will my most faithful companion, my blue book bag, to Mr. Rees; my athletic ability to P. H., S. R., and K. S. in fond memory of this year, my green Mustang to Roger Goodspeed so that he may travel in luxury, a new shovel to clear the volleyball court to Cathy Campbell, and all my school books to my sister Brandy.

WILLS

I, Deborah Jeanne Merritt, being of questionable mind, do hereby bequeath my long fingernails to Roger "basketball" Goodspeed, my ski fever to Cathy Campbell in hopes that she can control it, my Social Council Rules to Nadams, my younger sister to her family, and lastly, to the Haskell girls, I leave my love for Hawaii and Hawaiians.

I, Kate Munger, being practically here nor there, pass on to Mr. Schuyler my prowess in physics, chemistry, trig, and calculus to be held in reserve for the most worthy recipient, to Cathy C., my great enjoyment of horticulture, to Erik, the hope that there may always be some weeds in his garden, to Holly Haugh, eternal gratitude, to Mike, a gold-plated flute, to Kerry, her rightful share of UFOs, our "brothers," BIG pockets, gas station guys, and, most important, the warm feeling of being a sister, and endfully, to Clare, something.

I, Abigail Findlay, being undeniably Abigail Findlay, do hereby bequeath to Paco my December cleaning bill; to Mrs. Hansen, my latest book, entitled "How to Write Thank-You Letters to English Lords and Poems for Baby Showers"; to Roy Fowler, the other half of the army blanket in Gus; to Erik Funke, my copy of the "Aeneid" with the English translation written in between the lines; to Kerry, the hope that her kites will always fly high, and the $2.50 I owe her.

I, Linda Robertson, being of disposable mind and soul, do bequeath my 3rd period study hall to Brad B., an eternal soak to Mike Adcock, excellence (?) in Spanish to B. A., my car to anyone who wants it, jazz dance class to Vicky Rose, and all my problems to Pam Holm.

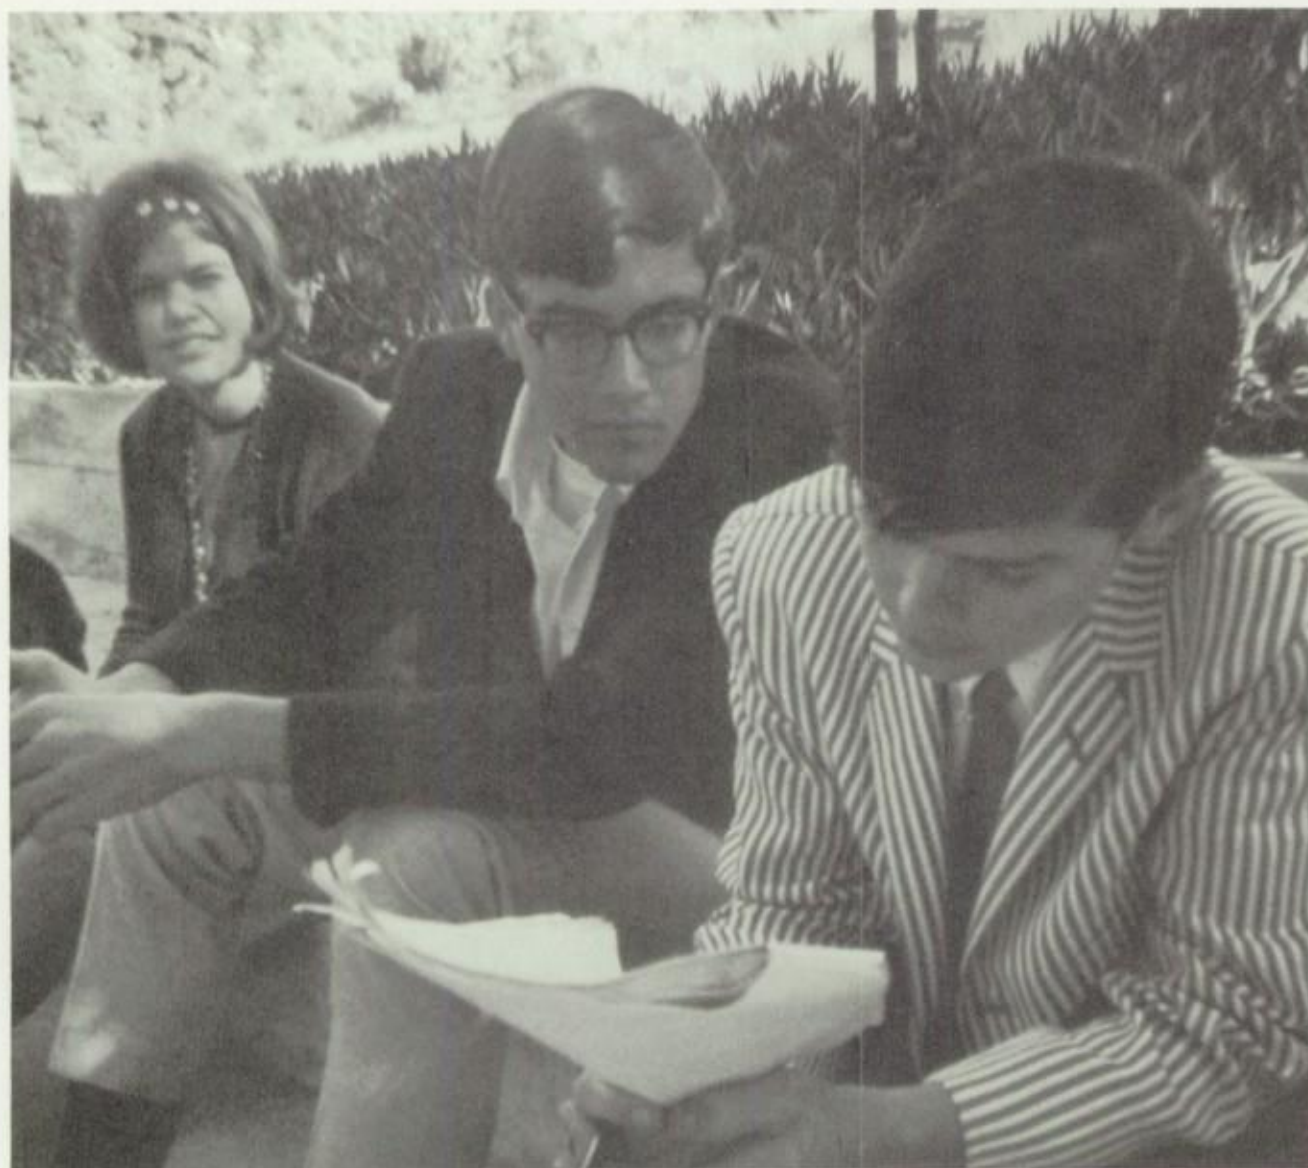

I, Tom Sutphy, being of lamentable mind and soul, do bequeath my parking space to John Lindsey and Bob Hoag, my two-year bench-warming position to Bazemore, my VW (Ferrari) to Adcock, my "applaud" sign to Mr. Tierney, my keenness in French to Holly Haugh, my singing capabilities to Erik Funke, and my "Suzy Creamcheese" sticker to Sam.

I, Freddy Tal, being, bequeath my bug-eyes to Mr. Adams, my position as photographer to the next unlucky soul, the lower school to anyone childish enough to want it, my friendliness to the Haughs, my bright smile to Mr. Satterlee's ghost, and I leave the temperamental Borgward, if there is anything left of it by the end of the year, to my sister.

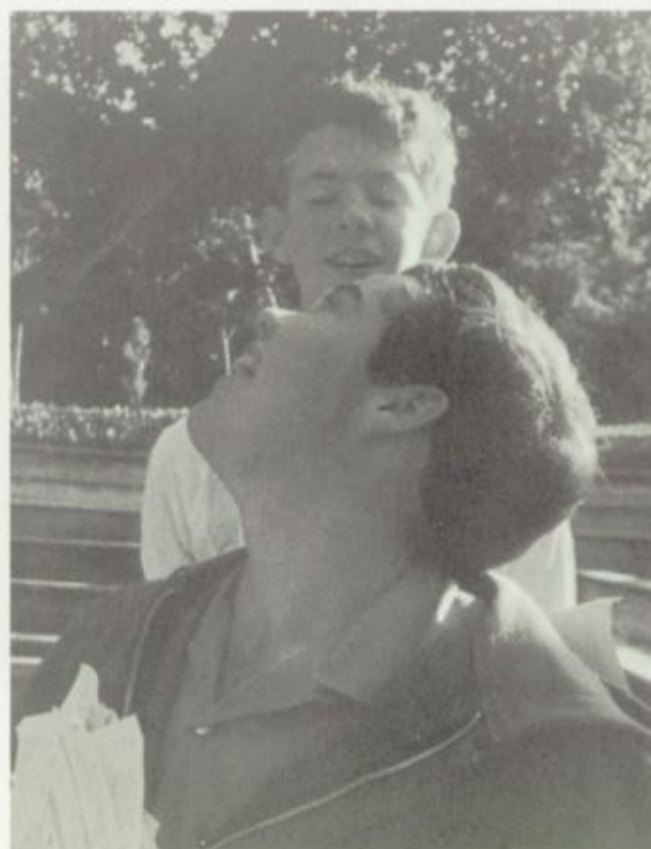

I, Jack Weir, being of unknown mind, do hereby bequeath the following: my unique ability to roll VWs to John Lindsey; a subscription to Playboy Magazine to the Isham Library—for Brad Adams; a way of getting out of trouble to Brad B.; a trimming machine to Hoag; and to Pam, that last glass.

We, the Class of 1967, about to depart, leave to Mrs. Stedman a lot of moral support and the tender thought of having to make up twice as many college transcripts next year.

FIFTH GRADE

BACK ROW: Bruce Spaulding, J. J. Jordano, Bill Mickle, Peter Nagel, David Conner, Robert Paratte, Hugh Bream. MISSING: Chris Goodrich, Clipper Erickson, Cynthia Jarvis.

Doug brings books for us to read,
 When it comes to a tune, Hugh can lead.
 Cindy often wins the Spelling Bee,
 A good story writer is Brooke C.
 David is our zoologist,
 And Clipper is our scientist.
 Chris has a lot of imagination,
 While Jimmy makes an art creation.
 Stephen may be a genius someday,
 Cynthia works hard for an A.
 Matt's usually the class clown,
 And J. J. finds it hard to let down.
 Virginia's pets we've heard about,
 In baseball Bill never strikes out.
 Kerry in soccer is sure to score,
 Pete always wants to read some more.
 Robby tries to get his work done,
 Robert's always ready for fun.
 Diana and Kathy love to ride,
 Bruce collects shellfish at low tide.
 These are the people of Fifth Grade,
 As you can see we have it "made."

FOURTH GRADE

We started out with eighteen
And thought the class was pretty keen.
Now there are nineteen;
The addition was our Hawaiian queen.
Susan Riley and Sarah Ryan

In my class we are kept busy,
Almost to the point of being dizzy,
The boys go to shop, the girls to to art,
And that gets us off to a very good start.
We all like our work and we all like sports;
The boys play soccer, the girls make forts.
We all like it here at school.
We think it's cool, man, cool!
The Hawaiian Queen

THIRD GRADE

We start the day with show and tell,
When we hear the classroom bell.

Bobby Maden

I love to do multiplications
As they do all over the nation.

Laurie Buehler

Our teacher is very nice,
But she is scared of mice!

April Perkins

We give lots of reports,
And have fun at sports.

Sandra Schmandt

The third grade is very nice,
But I don't want to do it twice.

Leslie Cummings

I love to work at school,
And come home to the pool.

Tony Gardner

Mego, our pet dog,
Always is a food hog.

Tracy Burnell

We go to school, that's class,
Hoping that we'll pass.

Cynthia Kenly

I like the life of school,
I never want to be a fool.

David Colfax

I like to see lunch time come,
I eat up every single crumb.

Robert Scott

Our class is very small,
We have fourteen in all.

Will Triggs

I like to have history,
Because it's such a mystery.

John Schuyler

I love my school and teacher too;
Follow the rules and so will you.

Amy Horton

SECOND GRADE

SUMMER

Red and blue shells.
Shells like bell shells.
Shells oh shells,
Sing me a song.
I could listen all day long.

AUTUMN

Fall, fall, the leaves are brown.
They turn our frowns upside down.

WINTER

Ho, ho, ho,
It's cold today.
This is fun.
Hurray, hurray!

SPRING

High, high up in the sky.
How gracefully the clouds go by.
When they slip and slide around,
It seems they may touch the ground.

KINDERGARTEN

FRONT ROW: Wade Vesey, Linda Haskell, Daniel Hochman, Michelle Fry, Julie Gordon. MIDDLE ROW: Brooke Wilson, Sierra Hogle, Chipper Lewis, Dawn Price, Laurie Brazelton. BACK ROW:

Karl Precoda, Diane Looman, Doug Dent, Molly O'Hanlon, Elizabeth Barnitz, Chris Rees. MISSING: Hilary Cummings, Scott Sloan.

What makes Kindergarten a special place for you?

Diane—"It's fun to learn things and listen to records."

Molly—"Swinging high on the swing when it's breezy."

Brooke—"I came here to learn and to read and to listen."

Chipper—"Making friends and doing number papers."

Wade—"You get to talk problems over together."

Julie—"You get to paint inside and outside and on yourself sometimes."

Hilary—"Sharing things from my house."

Scott—"I like swimming and riding and reading."

Karl—"Learn how to obey the rules and school is fun."

Daniel—"Because I'm a bigger boy now, my buttons and shoelaces and numbers."

Chris—"There's nothing special at all because it's all fun, you know."

Elizabeth—"Resting and listening to letter games at the same time."

Laurie—"Lots of extra books to read all alone."

Michelle—"I learn new things about numbers and writing."

Dawn—"It's fun to iron and play in the playhouse."

Linda—"Well, Joshua of course, and taking turns with your buddies."

Sierra—"Splashing and rainy days, with boots on, naturally."

Douglas—"I've got nothing to say—I like all of school and my friends."

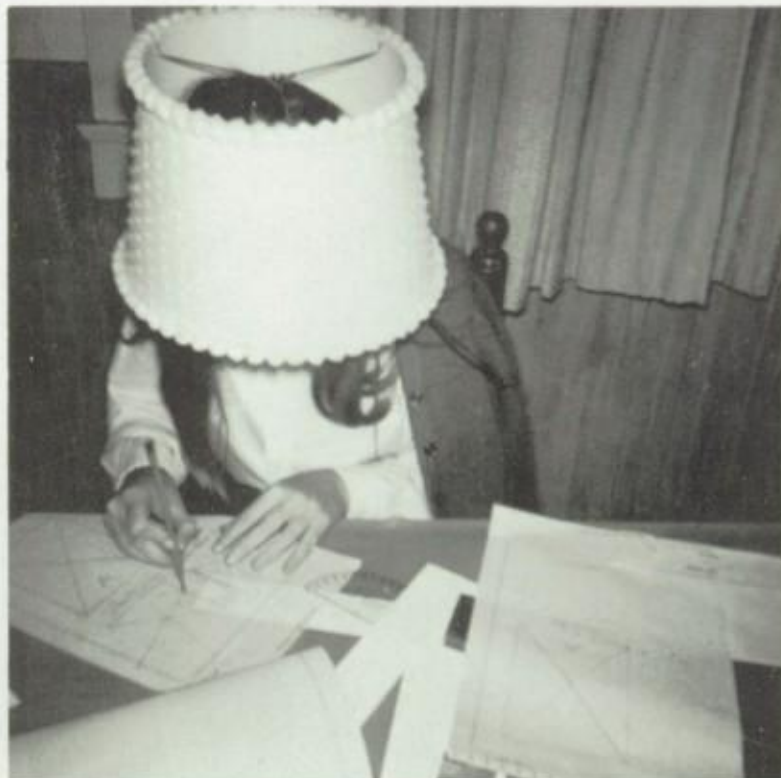

ACTIVITIES

LA HONDA

It was a dark and stormy night. The full force of the La Honda staff, numbering in the twos and threes, fought a valiant battle against time, fatigue, hunger, women, and more hunger far into the night. To the staccato of busy typewriters and a general background noise level of groans and rumbles like, "Kenly, come and tie my shoe laces," and "Mrs. K., how do you spell . . .?", the La Honda slowly took form. Needless to say, there were a few setbacks. Losing 3/4 of the pictures for the second deadline 48 hours before said deadline was not too helpful. When an unnamed parakeet proceeded to consume a section of the ninth grade page, minor hysteria was inevitable. Most solutions (such as forcing Mr. Adams at gun point to declare Laguna a high school only) had to be abandoned to less colorful possibilities such as redoing the page. Out of such experiences, however, much was learned (it's amazing the amount of damage you can do to a bird with a little piece of wire).

It can be safely said that La Honda would never have been completed without the close cooperation of a tightly knit team of professional ghost writers. Let this be a lesson to future La Honda staffs: All's fair in Love, War and Producing a Year Book.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council, headed by Margaret Kolyn, convened early last September to begin work on the first draft of Laguna's new Constitution, the final copy of which was submitted for approval to the Upper School. The week before school opened, certain of the Council members attended the summer workshop of the Associated Student Leaders at Rancho Oso on parliamentary procedure, which has been incorporated in the operation of our meetings. Moreover, as an active participant in ASL, Laguna sent a delegate to the Governor's Traffic Conference in Sacramento in November and hosted an ASL Cabinet meeting in January.

Other projects undertaken by the Council included the collection of canned food for the Council of Christmas Cheer, supervision of the uniform regulations, and a revision of the method by which the cheerleaders are elected. As representatives of the student body, the Council continues to strive for improved student-faculty communication and closer cooperation.

EL TECOLOTE

Kate Munger and Abbie Reitz

After many grand and wild promises of "radical change," "revolution," and "excitement," El Tecolote editors Abbie Reitz and Kate Munger did manage to produce a newspaper of a higher calibre than those of previous years. With their vast, nebulous staff, consisting mostly of juniors, they not only covered all the interesting happenings and activities at Laguna, but also introduced a new sparkle and wit to the paper in the form of thought-provoking editorials, opinion polls, "first person" articles, and generally better writing. The credit for many of the brilliant ideas used in the paper goes to Mr. Cramer, the advisor, who also stopped many a glaring mistake from slipping by.

An innovation this year was the literary supplement to El Tecolote, containing poems, stories, and essays by Laguna students. It included the most original and interesting writing handed in to English classes as well as some items written on the students' own initiative out of class. The literary supplement is a fascinating reflection of what Laguna students are thinking and feeling, and it is hoped that it will become a tradition.

A.F.S.

SAILING CLUB

Our Commodore

In its second successful year, the Sailing Club has expanded and become one of the most successful activities on campus. Its members sponsored a highly successful Film Festival during the second semester to help pay for the upkeep on the boats.

The Sailing Club was founded in 1965 by Mr. Arent Schuyler and enthusiastic sailors. Two Blue Jay sloops had been donated by friends of the school, and the Club hopes to acquire another Blue Jay, thus completing an official Blue Jay Fleet. The members sail every possible Friday afternoon, and also sail Mr. Schuyler's 30-foot cutter, the Wishbone.

Experience is not essential, for beginners are taught the techniques of sailing and racing. More experienced sailors participate in races with other schools, notably Midland, Dos Pueblos, and San Marcos. Parents, friends, and students may use the boats during the week-ends and throughout the summer.

A.S.L.

SOCIAL COUNCIL

SERVICE CLUB

The object of the Service Club, our newest club, is to activate the students' interest in the world around them. Under the able supervision of Kate Munger, chairman, the club was quickly organized and its three branches set into motion. Its out-of-school project is to help at Los Ninos Day Nursery, sending two students three days a week. The second branch, the assembly committee, is responsible for obtaining a great variety of interesting speakers. The third group puts out a weekly bulletin informing students of programs and events both in and out of school. This club is a definite asset to Laguna's school life, and we know that it will continue to do good work in the coming years.

In this its second year, the French Club has doubled its membership, and, under the guidance of an ingenious projects committee—Margaret Kolyn, Jean Stearns, and Holly Haugh—enjoyed a varied program. Every other Thursday the members met in the Biology Lab to practice their French (English speakers were fined), journey to Baden-Baden and other antipodes through the Colonel's home movies, or to hear informative speakers on such provocative topics as "The Young French Girl." In the spring the club sponsored a dance in a Parisian atmosphere to raise extra funds hopefully to pay for French films for future years. This year's officers were: Mademoiselle la Presidente Debbie Kenly, Vice-Presidente Rikkie Tal, and Secre-taire-Tresorier Claire Panosian.

MUSIC

FALL FESTIVAL

The annual Fall Festival was held this year on October 22. Parents', teachers', and students' combined efforts raised over $4000 for Laguna's scholarship fund. The Senior Show, "Around the World in Twenty-nine and One Half Minutes," followed the international theme with a variety of dances and songs. The junior class dunk booth, starring Mr. Gaines, proved one of the most popular activities again this year, but a puppet show by grade eight and the "Le Mans" race were successful newcomers.

The Midway as usual was a colorful collection of games of skill and luck, auctions, drawings, races, book sales, horse rides, and many other festival activities.

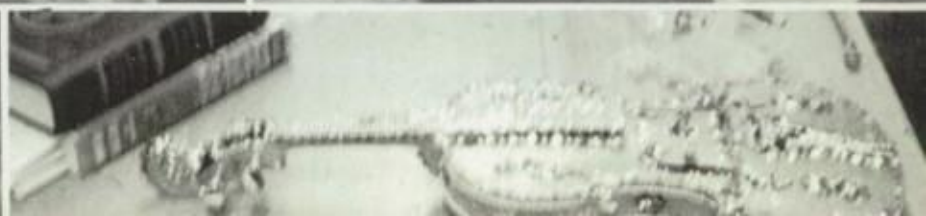

NERONIA '66

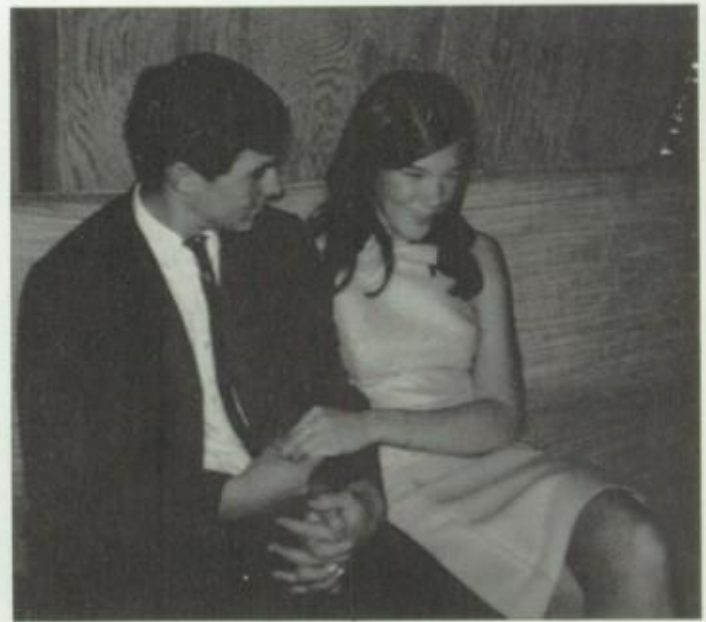

Again this year Mr. Tierney wrote, produced and directed that infamous and original play, Neronia. The Greek Theatre was packed with enthusiastic students, parents, and the howling fans of the delightful cast.

Nero was portrayed by David Bazemore, a fatigued Latin student who dreams that he becomes the famous emperor. Erik Funke acted as his royal advisor and tutor, Seneca, while Roger Goodspeed played the court physician with Rand Wilson as his comic assistant. Dawn Lucian sang and danced as the sharp-tongued slave of the empress, Poppaea, well-acted by Linda Robertson. Rikkie Tal ably portrayed a crazy Armenian princess determined to snare Nero as her next husband, and Holly Haugh played her astrologer. Another good acting job was done by Barry Burnell, Cacophanus, who had to judge the music contest between Nero and five quarrelling musicians, Debbie Kenly, Jeff Adams, Tom Sutphen, Margaret Kolyn, and Claudia Elmes. During the musicians' number, a successful "flamingo" dance was performed by Debbie Dunn and Debbie Merritt. One of the musicians, Nausea, the Syrian Siren, was crowned winner.

Neronia was tremendous enjoyment for everyone involved, especially at the rehearsals which were extremely entertaining because Mr. Tierney was forced to repair all his props by pasting them with priceless, sparkling gems.

PARTIES

It was a dark and stormy night. She snuggled up (not that close!). The Lapa Lapa party won out against a strong wind. Dining and dancing and singing and eating and winning; it went over beautifully (except that the juniors won the volleyball game).

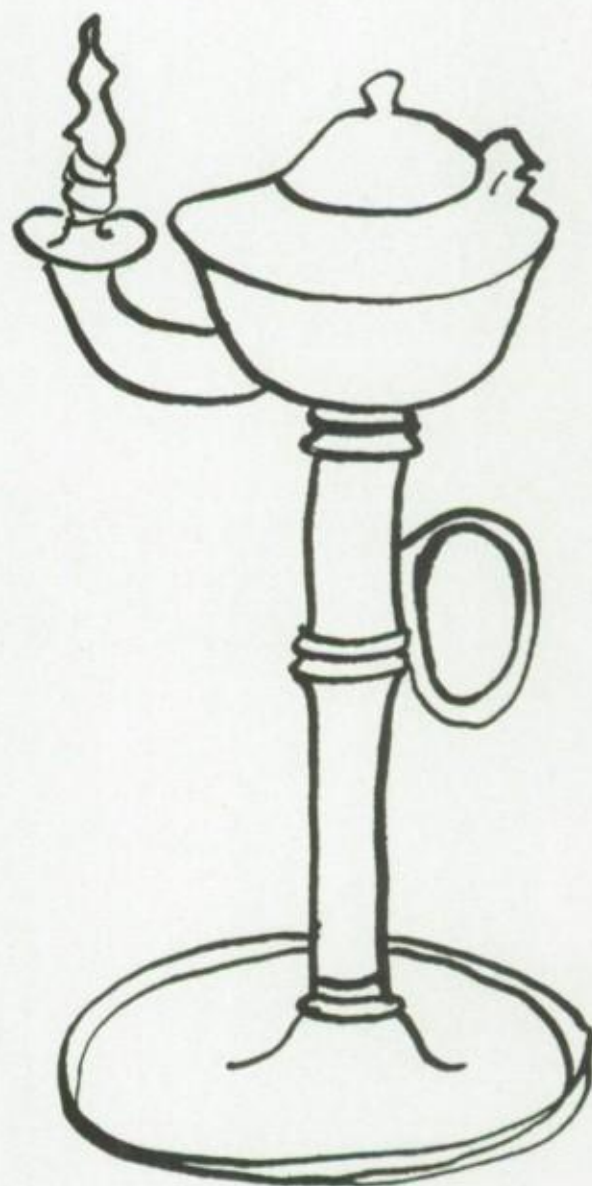

The Midland dance started with a bounce when two contact lenses crashed to the floor scattering innocent bystanders to the far corners of the room. A volunteer group of Midland boys went in search and fortunately found them without entailing much injury. The dance floor was seldom empty because of the falling decorations. The party ended with a party—a great success.

The Christmas party was not only well-attended but also financially successful The Duquanes brought their fathers along; and they spent the night outside together as their sons made time inside. At first the fire made the room too hot, but a solution was soon found The punch kept running short and kept (mysteriously) replenishing itself The Adamses and the Cramers chaperoned, spending the night mysteriously replenishing punch bowls.

These were three of the school-sponsored parties—all of them were well-attended and fun! There were, of course, numerous private parties throughout the year which added to the chaos and usual festive spirits of Laguna Blanca party-goers.

We expect the Junior—Senior prom to be as good as the one last year—so go to it, Juniors!

VARSITY COACHES

Mr. Spaulding coached both Varsity Soccer and Varsity Baseball this year as well as being Director of Athletics. Coach Spaulding started the Soccer season with rigorous work-outs, later dividing the teams into defense and offense units. He emphasized the value of shooting. We foresee a strong team under Coach Spaulding's guidance in the coming season. We are grateful to him for his interest and success as a coach.

Mr. Adams is cross-country coach this year, with a new system of training by working the team on both the road and track; Coach Adams has gotten the team in better condition than in previous years. With this training we expect much more from the team. We congratulate Coach Adams for his successful team and coaching.

This year Mr. Gaines ably coached the J. V. Soccer as well as the Basketball and Track Squads. His precision in calling plays and time outs made for a victorious and exciting basketball season. With more players and hard work the track team will put up a good fight.

Colonel Roberson, grand of voice and grand of spirit, contributed greatly to this year's sports program. As in previous years Colonel coached the backfield players of the varsity and the varsity against the Alumni. We hope Colonel will show his enthusiasm for the sports program by coaching next year.

VARSITY SOCCER

The Varsity Soccer Team beat Thacher 3-2, its only victory of the season. Although there were several disappointments, the team exhibited great potential. Hampered by both injuries and illnesses, it fought harder to make up for the losses, causing the games to be very close. The morale of the team was always high, despite many discouragements. With the next soccer season returns the entire first team and most of the bench-warmers. We can therefore expect a strong season next year.

This year's J.V. Soccer team, coached by Mr. Gaines, rallied on to a good season. Although their season was 1-6, the games were all close and carried much team spirit. The team had several newcomers to soccer this year in Eric Black, Bob Lindsey, Brian Noon, and Jeff Adams. These men showed great skill for their first year of soccer and definitely helped the team play such close games. Mike Bartok and Robbie Bertrando were strong fullbacks with agile Brian Noon backing them up in the goal. The J.V. s got into condition by scrimmaging and shooting during practice. Coach Gaines felt that the backfield was strong but the front line was weak in shooting power. We congratulate Coach Gaines on his fine job this year.

THIRD TEAM

The third team had a very good season this year with three wins and two ties. Mr. Rees led the team to a good season by increasing the running and exercising. The team scrimmaged the J.V.'s twice and beat them once, showing their strength. The backfield was strong with Captain Robbie Mickle playing halfback; the front line, however, lacked shooting prowess. The team had many strong quarters, but they seldom occurred consecutively. We thank Coach Rees for his success and wish him luck next year.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

J.V. BASKETBALL

The cross country team started its second season with a new coach, Mr. Adams, who promptly introduced a different method of training to this year's squad by having the runners work on both road and track. Although the team lacked depth and experience, it did have three good runners in Sam Spaulding, Steve Dietrich, and Tom Sutphen. Several new members will be very strong contenders next year.

TRACK TEAM

This year the Laguna track squad consisted of an even representation from grades nine through twelve. As coach, Mr. Gaines once again began by developing the individual talents of the boys as track is best suited to individual efforts. Some new talent had to be developed, especially in the pole vault, but we had a larger squad than last year and most of the team members will be returning next year.

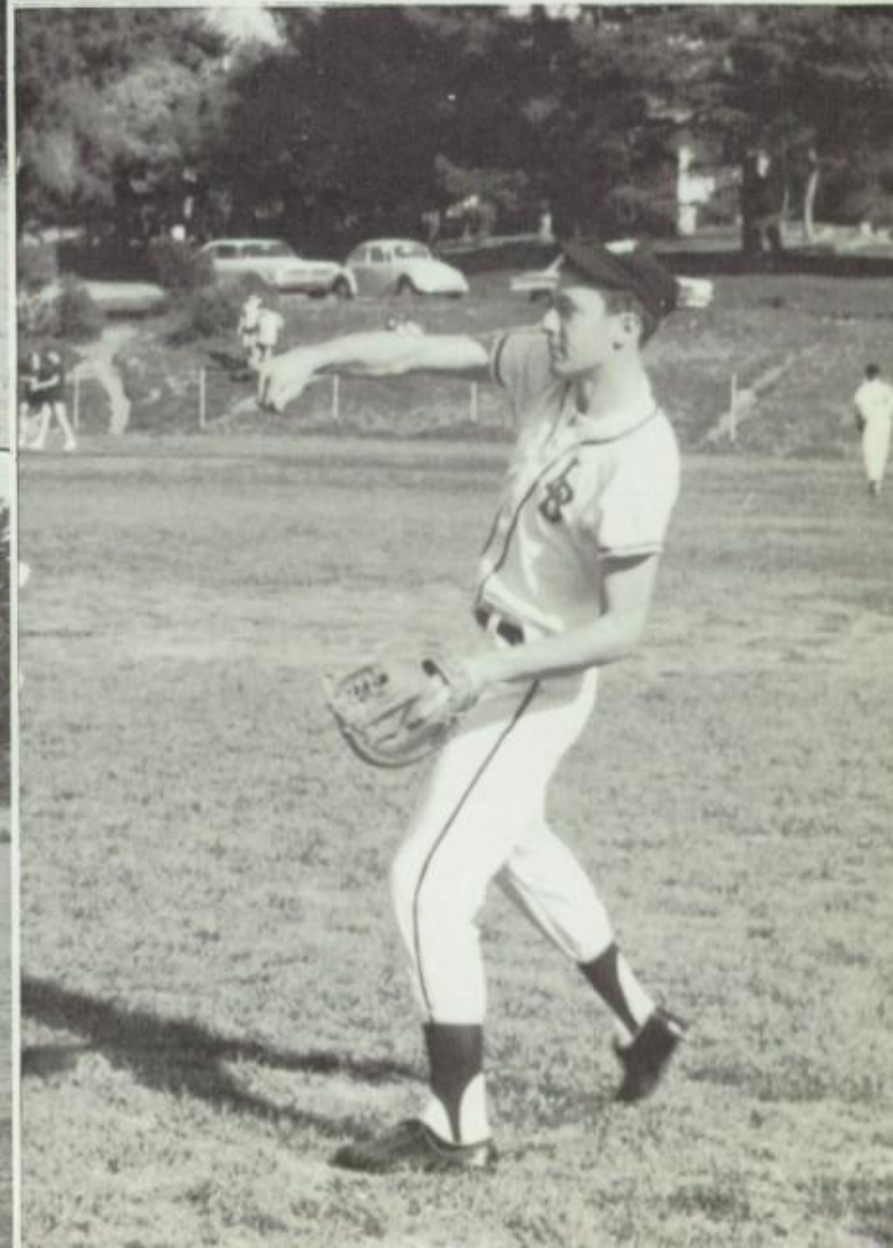

BASEBALL

Baseball at Laguna began with the annual speech given by Coach Spaulding to the attentive players. He urged them all to put out a maximum effort at all times, and he stated his firm belief that this year's team would have a successful season. Although this article goes to press before we can see the results, we are confident that this will be true. Most of the team will return next year—with their experience and the ability of the new members we are sure to have a good baseball season next year too.

A collage of 20 black and white photographs of students and a dog. The photos are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The subjects include: a boy looking down; a girl looking to the side; a boy and girl sitting at a table; a girl looking up; a boy smiling; a boy with glasses looking to the side; a boy drinking from a cup; a boy smiling; a fluffy white dog; a girl looking to the side; a girl looking forward; a boy looking down; a girl smiling; a boy looking down; a girl looking to the side; a boy looking down; a girl looking forward; a boy looking down; a girl looking forward; a boy looking down; a girl looking forward.

EDITORS' LAST GASP

The editors of La Honda '67 wish to express their thanks to Mr. Cramer, Mrs. Kenly, that compassionate yearbook protector in the sky, and the poor souls who have shown up and worked so hard at the "happenings" we lightly call La Honda meetings for the help and mercy they have contributed to La Honda 1967.

We wish to make a few passing suggestions to the forthcoming La Honda editors: 1. Start production MONTHS ahead of time. 2. Editors should be able to run the mile in five minutes flat and kill without mercy. 3. Use cameras that do not have built-in self-destruction mechanisms. 4. Frequent prayer sessions are suggested and ABSOLUTE QUIET is essential!

As the noose draws tight, with nerves so taut a piano wire looks like a damp noodle and with enough energy left to crack an olive, we reluctantly turn over our enviable (?) positions to our counterparts in the class of '68.
